

Important information for those at home

This document can be used as a format for the home front. Fill in important data and phone numbers so that the people at home can help in case of an emergency or when you lose this information.

Outward flight details:

With the flight data the people back home can follow your flight and see when you landed safely.

Return flight details:

Contact details HZ:

Fill in a contact person, address and phone number in all contact details.

Johannetta van den Broek

johannetta.van.den.broek@hz.nl

(+31) (0) 118-4891148

Contact details International Security Partners:

Contact details embassy:

Before you leave, find out how to reach the embassy in the country you are travelling to and register yourself.

Contact details health insurance and travel insurance:

Think also of the emergency numbers of the insurance companies which are available 24/7.

Contact details treating doctor in your home country or in Vlissingen/Middelburg:

Contact details of the accommodation where you are going to stay abroad:

Contact details of the partner institute:

Contact details of your fellow traveller(s):

IMEI number and ICE-number of your phone:

IMEI is the abbreviation for 'International Mobile Equipment Identity'. Every cell phone has its own IMEI. This is a number that usually consists of fifteen numbers. On Google you can see how to find your IMEI on your device.

Copy of your passport: